Evacuation of Metz by Civilians Is Reported; French-British Gain

German Air Raiders Are After Railroads—Berlin Admits the French Have Obtained A Foothold In German Advance Post—Zeppelin Is Wrecked Following Night Raid.

LONDON, MAY 4.—Reuter's Amsterdam correspondent telegraphs that information which is regarded as trustworthy has been received there that Metz is being evacuated by the civil population.

Metz, the capital of Lorraine, and a city of about 60,000, is rated as one of the strongest fortresses of the world, and is held by the Germans It is about 15 miles north of the fighting line and 40 miles east of Verdun

The city has been frequently raided by French airmen, but recent military op rations have not been such as to suggest the city is in danger.

Another contingent of Russian soldiers arrived at Marseilles, France, this morning and was received with notable military and popular reception. The troops proceeded to the camp at Mirabeau.

French And British Gain.

The advance of the French in the district of Dead Man hill on the Verdun front was continued during the night, the Paris war office announced this afternoon. The gains made yesterday were increased and consolidated.

The British troops further north have also succeeded in gaining a foothold in the German positions, but were repulsed in a thrust at Lons.

Raiders After Railroads.

Coast fortifications on the outskirts of Deal were evidently the objective of the German seaplane raid over that place on Wednesday. The raiders also tried to damage the railway line which parallels the coast north of Dover.

The following additional details of the raid were given out today by Viscount John French, commander-in-chief of the home forces:

"The casualties at Deal are now known to be three, two men and a woman having been wounded. The windows in the church were broken and the roof was blown from a public house. The windows in 20 houses were smashed. Seven bombs were dropped, some of them on the railway station.

"The Zeppelin raid covered a considerable extent of the eastern coast. At least five or six airships actually crossed the shore.

"Reports from reliable observers made at various times during the night at many points, some as far distant as Raitray Head, Scotland, down to the northern coast of Norfolk, would point to the possibility of a greater number of airships having been employed off our coasts. The enemy, however, made only two attempts to penetrate inland.

"About 100 bombs were dropped, scattered over many localities."

Zeppelin Is Wrecked.

The German Zeppelin L-20, which took part in Thursday night's raid and which was reported to have been badly damaged by the fire of British aeroplane and high angle guns, has been wrecked on the Norwegian coast. Eighteen members of the crew have been interned by the Norwegian authorities, a dispatch from Christiana says

The L-20 was the twenty-ninth Zeppelin lost since the war began.

Germans Admit It.

BERLIN, MAY 4.—(Via London.)—It is officially announced that the French have obtained a foothold in one of the German advance posts south of Dead Man Hill.

Graduating Dresses Are Made by Girls

The graduating dresses made by the girl graduates of the 8th grade are nearing completion. Here is a question of economy. These dresses are simply beautiful and so cheap! How did the girls economize? Notice the cost of the dresses:

Skirt	$ 1 50
Waist	.50
Lace	.20
Thread	.05
Total	$ 2.25

This make a total cost of $2 25. These dresses will be on exhibition at the annual exhibit of the vocational arts department, May 17, 18, 19 and 20

Here is what the 8th grade girls have made this year: Teddy Bear combination garment, embroidered piece, eyelet, satin stitch, outline stitch. Ribbon roses and other flowers. Rosettes and bows graduating dresses. Much time has been given to the teaching of the use of the sewing machine.

This constitutes a practical course. Care is taken not to overlap the work of the other departments.

Ohio Canal Is Debate Topic

Beta Tau Rho literary society, of C. H. S., met Thursday evening at Central High school auditorium and enjoyed the following program: Debate. Resolved, that the Ohio Canal should be abandoned. Affirmative, William Hunt; negative, William Bretzius. The debate was won by the affirmative. Harry Brendel read a paper on "The Importance of Science to the Progress of Our Country." There were piano solos by Walter March, Charles St. Clair and Harry Foote.

A banquet will be given by the society, probably the last Thursday in May. Owing to the fact that the dining rooms of all the local hotels are closed, it is likely that the banquet will be held at the school, and the menu will be provided by the senior girls. A committee on arrangements was appointed as follows: Charles Brooke, Walter March, Harry Robson, Merrell Sondles, and Prof. George Bost.

Next week the society will give a mock trial. The prisoner is to be arrested on a charge of stealing. Frew Boyd will be defendant; plaintiff, Barton Williams; judge, Merrell Sondles' attorney for defense, Paul Barnes; prosecuting attorney, Clyde Atkinson; jury, to be selected; clerk, Walter March; bailiff, George Gosser.

A poem by O. Henry will be read, and music will be furnished by Birney Mills, Walter March, and Merrell Sondles.

Mine Field is Extended

Baggage, however, must be placed on No. 3 which leaves a short time before No. 113.

PRESIDENT SANCTIONS AGREEMENT

WASHINGTON, MAY 4.—The cooperative agreement reached between Generals Scott and Obregon to govern the future acts of American troops in Mexico was approved today by President Wilson.

While it is known the president is satisfied with the terms of the agreement, no formal announcement of his acceptance will be made until General Carranza has had an opportunity to receive and either approve or reject the agreement.

The president conferred with Secretary Baker at noon on the correspondence received from General Scott detailing the terms on which Scott and Obregon had reached an understanding

Aside from the knowledge that the agreement puts no time limit on the stay of American troops in Mexico and does provide for satisfactory use of Mexican railroads, nothing of an official nature can be said regarding the contents of the agreement until Carranza has been heard from.

Immediately after the conference here a message was sent to General Scott stating that the president awaited word from Carranza before final acceptance. It is the belief that Carranza's approval will be given late today.

The president probably will issue a statement on the Mexican situtions as soon as the first chief is heard from.

Heiman Gets Contract For City Hall Job

At his bid of $880.67 Charles Heiman was awarded the contract for the installation of a modern heating system in the City hall. But two bids were received, Anthony Bries being high bidder with a bid of an even $1000. The bids were opened Thursday at noon in the office of the Safety Director.

Note In Hands of Ambassador

WASHINGTON, MAY 4.—American Ambassador Gerard at Berlin notified the state department today that Germany's reply to the United States submarine demands would probably be delivered to him today.

It was stated today President Wilson has not wavered in his determination Germany must yield completely in the submarine dispute.

The statement, from a high official source, was the only expression obtainable concerning the submarine issue, action in which awaits Germany's reply to the president's latest note.

That note demanded immediate and unconditional abandonment of U-boat war on all ships except warships. Germany was told failure to agree would mean a diplomatic break.

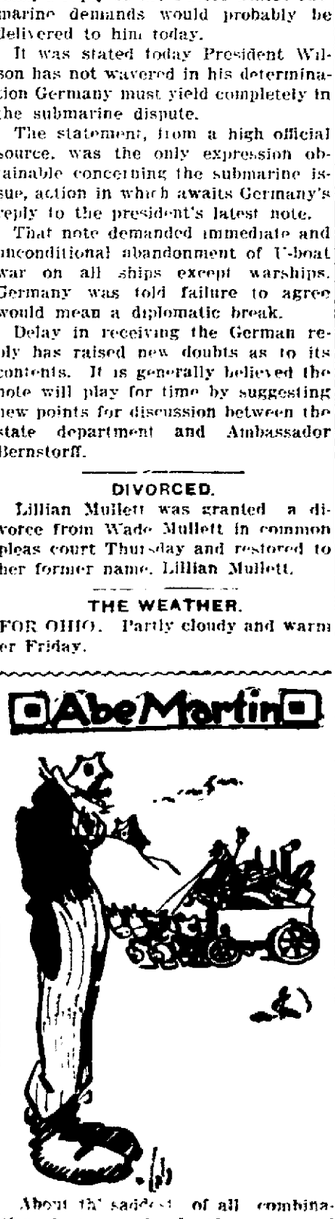

Delay in receiving the German reply has raised new doubts as to its contents. It is generally believed the note will play for time by suggesting new points for discussion between the state department and Ambassador Bernstorff.

Former United States Minister Arrested As An Irish Revolutionist

James Sullivan Nabbed At Dublin And Brot To England—Ambassador Page Makes Inquiries — Sir Roger Casement To Be Hanged With Silken Rope.

LONDON, MAY 4.—James Sullivan, until a few months ago American minister to Santo Domingo, has been arrested at Dublin in connection with the rebellion.

Sullivan has been brought to England. Page asked that what charge has been preferred against him and what procedure will be taken.

Will Try Casement.

Sir Roger Casement will be brought to trial in London within a few days on the charge of high treason, it was announced today, following the execution of rebel leaders yesterday morning. Baron Reading, lord chief justice of England, will preside

Unless Sir Roger escapes the death sentence because he is found to be insane he will be hanged with a silken rope—a "privilege" accorded condemned members of the nobility by ancient custom.

The rank and file of the Irish rebels will be dealt with leniently it was stated today. Sir Edward Carson, Ulster leader, and John Redmond, leader of the Irish Nationalists, have joined in an appeal to the government for mercy. It is believed the majority of Sinn Feiners will be given light sentences and that a few will be deported.

Only Three Shot.

It was confirmed from official sources today that only three rebel leaders were shot to death yesterday. They were Partick Pearce, president of the seven-day Irish republic; Thomas J. Clark, the tobacconist in whose shop the conspiracy was hatched, and Thomas McDonagh, one of the signers of the Irish republic proclamation.

James Connolly, commander-in-chief of the Irish rebel army, who was reported executed, is in prison, badly wounded, it was learned today.

Discouraging Obstacles Are Surmounted By Couple Who Leave On Their Wedding Trip

A romance which has something on Laura Jean Libbey's wildest dreams, culminated Thursday when Miss Harriet Adelia Houston, nineteen years old, left the city with the gay Lochinvar, who gives his name as William H. Foltz, of Canton, but who is unfamiliar with Canton events and unknown to persons with whom he claimed acquaintance.

The story of the romance is brief but eventful Less than a fortnight ago local papers received remittances for a want ad to be published in the subsequent issues requesting a correspondence with some poor girl who was not a dancehall flower with a view to matrimony. No reply other were received

One bore the name and address of a young lady on North Second street. Lochinvar decided to investigate, and was not by the lady in person, but Lochinvar excused himself and decided to try another. His first venture had brot him face to face with a colored maid

Returning to his hotel he fixed upon another with whom he had carried on a vigorous correspondence. She proved to be his choice, Miss Houston, an employe at the Coshocton Glove plant, residing with her sister, Mrs Alva Reed, of South Seventh street.

He plied his suit vigorously with the result that on Wednesday he led his intended to the office of the probate judge where it seemed that Lochinvar and Cupid were doomed to lose out Calling the willing maiden aside, Judge Ashman quietly explained the seriousness of the step she was about to take That was sufficient. Miss Houston speedily went home again where she later told the Judge she would have no more dealings with Lochinvar

Not to be so easily cast aside, Lochinvar was persistent and renewed his suit He arguments overcame the counsel counsel and resolutions of Wednesday and the pair left the city on No. 19 for Newcomerstown, the first stage of a confessed wedding trip.

A Forgotten Existence

By ELEANOR MARSH

I was traveling on a railway train. Suddenly I felt a sharp pain in my head. Then I lost consciousness. When I came to myself I saw several persons standing about me, one, a woman, with a bottle of smelling salts in her hand. I tried to recall where I was going. I could not. Then I tried to recall from where I had come. I failed in this too. Doubtless I appeared dazed to those about me, for a woman said:

"She'll come all right presently. Give her a chance to collect her faculties."

After I had been asked a few questions I gave those about me to understand that I wished to be left alone, and one after the other they went to their seats. Then to my horror I found that I didn't know my own name. I didn't know my parents' name nor who they were. Everything beyond the present was lost in oblivion.

Would it all come back? I believed it would. But it did not. I looked in my purse and found tickets to a city and bank bills to the amount of $24, besides some silver. I searched among a few slips of paper hoping to see my name. There was not a word to suggest who I was.

Not caring to go into a large city in such a condition I got off at a suburban station. It was springtime. I passed a snug cottage, in the grounds of which were two little girls playing. I craved some one to speak to and preferred these innocents to any one else. The gate was open, and I entered the yard, calling to them to come to me. They did so, and I put an arm about each of them. I talked to them and they to me. I cared not what was said, I felt comfort in their company.

"Papa!"

One of the children looked up at some one entering the gateway. I followed the direction of her glance and saw a man about to enter. There was something so kindly in his face that I felt impelled to tell him my trouble and ask his advice as to what I should do. He listened to me, asked me a few questions, then said:

"Come into the house and we will see what can be done for you."

His household was run by an elderly woman. There was also a nurse for the children. He told the former to give me a room for the night, and he and I and the children dined together. After dinner he informed me of steps he proposed to take on the morrow to discover my identity, suggesting that I examine my clothing to discover if there was a mark that would help us. After dinner I went to my room and made the examination. There was nothing to give any clew.

Mr. Seagrave, the gentleman, telephoned an advertisement to a newspaper in the city describing me and the incident connected with me. He said he thought my relatives would be on the lookout for such a notice and I would hear from them very soon. He also gave me permission to remain in his house till I was claimed or my memory returned. I had enough money to pay my board for two or three weeks, but after that I would be penniless.

Time passed and no one claimed me. I wondered if I had any relatives. I judged that I was about twenty-one years old. Had I been married? If so my husband would doubtless move heaven and earth to find me.

When three weeks had gone by I tendered Mr. Seagrave my $24 for my keep and told him that it was all I had. He offered to discharge the nurse and make me the governess of his children. I gladly accepted.

A doctor who was called in to see me said that he was of the opinion my loss of memory had been occasioned either by a former sickness or trouble. I showed no sign of having been ill, and there was no evidence of a past trouble.

What I had been I knew not. I knew that I was very happy in Mr. Seagrave's home. I loved the two little girls, and I grew to love him. A widower, he naturally pined for a woman's companionship. I had not been in his house a year before he asked me to marry him.

Alas! I knew not whether or no I was free to marry any one. There was a long struggle between my desire to be his wife and to mother his two dear little girls. He seemed to have made up his mind to take the chances himself, and at last I consented. We were married. He, I and the children were happy.

About two years after my marriage I awoke one morning after a long sleep my former self. It was a horrible awakening. I had married a man who had treated me brutally, and after a terrible scene I had caught up what money there was in the house and left him. He had married me in opposition to his parents' will and had thus given up a fortune.

I told Mr. Seagrave that my memory had returned, that our marriage was not legal. He bade me be comforted, that all would come out right. I gave him information to guide him, and he proceeded to look up the case.

One day soon after this he came home and took me in his arms, evidently very happy. He told me that my former husband had died and that his father had advertised for me. I went to see him, and he said he had sought me that he might make amends for his son's cruelty. He was very rich and at once settled a part of his fortune on me. When he died I received the rest.

HIS LAST TRIP IN SEARCH OF MINE

Venerable Prospector Says If He Doesn't Find It This Time He Will Give It Up.

New Westminster, B. C.—Wilbur Armstrong, a Washington prospector of seventy-two, plunged into the mountains of the Pitt range recently on his tenth trip in search of Slumagh's mine. For ten years Armstrong has made this pilgrimage every summer, but this, he says, will be the last if it proves as barren as the others.

Armstrong is not the only man who has headed search parties in the attempt to locate this hidden treasure, whose location is asserted to be within twenty miles of the head of Pitt lake, yet which has been discovered by but one man, who is now dead, since Slumagh, the Indian after whom it is named, was hanged in the jail yard at New Westminster in 1891.

Tenth Trip in Search of Mine.

Walter Jackson, the second discoverer, panned out thousands of dollars' worth of gold in a few days when he located it in 1901. Burying the main part of his treasure, he came out with dust and nuggets to the value of $8,000, intending to return and stake claims at his leisure. But he fell sick and, being about to die, bethought him of Andrew Hall, who had grubstaked him at Guytos many years before. He wrote to Hall and drew a chart. Hall finding himself in need of money in the Yukon sold the letter and chart to a cousin of Armstrong, to whom the documents finally came.

Jackson's description of his find, which is in a creek in a canyon to which there is no outlet except by an underground channel, says in part:

"In going upstream I found a place where the bedrock was bare, and you will hardly believe me when I tell you the bedrock was yellow with gold. In a few days I gathered thousands, and there was thousands more in sight. Some of the nuggets were as big as walnuts. . . . I saw there were millions practically on the surface. I buried part of the gold under a tent-shaped rock with a mark cut on the face."

SOCIETY

W. M. A. Meeting.

Thursday evening the W. M. A. of the United Brethren church met at the home of Mrs. George Doney, of Chestnut street. Interesting papers were read by Mrs. Anna Tish, Mrs. Myrtle Loos and Mrs. William Ross. Plans were made to pay $40 for foreign missions. At the conclusion of the program, refreshments were served by the hostess. There was one visitor at the meeting. The June meeting will be held at the home of Mrs. Charles McDonald, of South Ninth street.

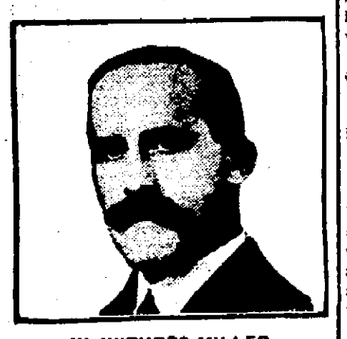

Concert Date Announced.

The Royal Opera Singers, of Norway, and Ignatius Tello, violinist, will appear in concert at the Sixth Street Theatre, May 10. Interest in the coming of this company of instrumental artists and grand opera stars is very great indeed. Considerable interest is shown in the appearance of Ignatius Tello, who is making his first important American tour.

He plays some of his own compositions during the evening, which he has just arranged to have published.

SOUTHERN DRUG MERCHANT MAKES UNUSUAL STATEMENT

Great Business Losses Due to Neglect

W. WITHERS MILLER

President of the Polk-Miller Drug Company, Richmond, Va., is authority for the following extraordinary statement:

"I estimate that the business men of this country could increase their efficiency fully ten per cent by taking an occasional laxative and not neglecting the bowels as most of them do."

He also said that if the Department of Commerce in Washington would present each business man in the country with a box of Rexall Orderlies, it would be of great benefit to the national welfare. Rexall Orderlies are prompt in action, pleasant to take and never gripe, can be used by men, women or children, and are just the thing for toning up sluggish livers.

We have the exclusive selling rights for this great laxative.

SIEGRIST & WILLIAMS
THE REXALL STORE

Joachim considered him one of the most gifted artists ever under his tutelage. He was one of the very few soloists to receive material compensation for his recital appearance in Berlin. He is a native of Buenos Ayres and has toured the entire civilized continent of South America as well as Central America in concert work. For three years he lived in Central America and Mexico City, Mexico, and came to this country to prepare for his tour with the Royal Norwegian Opera Singers. He is a ready linguist, speaking five different languages and is familiar with the best violin literature of many countries. The brilliance and sureness of his playing compel unrestrained admiration. A few days ago he was guest of the executive mansion at Santa Fe, and of his appearance there the Santa Fe New Mexican says, "Music lovers were aroused to a high pitch of enthusiasm over the brilliant Brazilian's masterly technique and deep musical understanding." He has played the violin since he was six years old. His passionate love for the instrument was shown at the age of three years, and at six his musical education was begun. His own compositions are frequently played as encores and reveal his remarkable character and individuality as nothing else could.

Thank Offering Meeting.

Junior Farther Lights, of Grace M. E. church, held a thank offering meeting Thursday evening at the home of their leader, Mrs. W. W. McCullough, of Orange street. The mothers of the members, and a few friends, were guests. A playlet, entitled "Aunt Polly Joins The Missionary Society," with the following cast, was given:

Mrs. Smith, an elderly lady, Margery Smith.

Aunt Polly Blodkins, Ruth Elliott.

Miss Alvira Tompkins, Elsie McKinley.

Mrs. Jones, Mary Smith.

Miss Mary Golden, Mabel Powelson.

There was a piano duet by Ruth Elliott and Dorothy Disser, and a vocal duet by Marjory Smith and Norma Hennel. Miss Arline Wangen gave a reading, and Mrs. C. W. St. Clair addressed the society. Refreshments were served.

C. W. B. M. Meeting.

At the home of Mrs. C. R. Randles, of Locust street, the meeting of the C. W. B. M. of the Church of Christ, was held Thursday evening. Mrs. Wright, of Warsaw, was leader and reviewed the book, "Forty Years of Service," and there was a reading, "Missionary Tidings," by Mrs. C. H. Hood. Mrs. George Pharion gave a sketch of "Mr. and Mrs. Elmer Childs."

The next meeting will be held June 2, at the home of Mrs. Sam Miller. Mrs. F. C. Trott will be leader.

Enjoyable Class Party.

Various games and contests provided amusement for a number of young people, of German Evangelical church, when the H. T. C. class entertained Rudolph Ehrich's class, in the basement of the church. Decorations were in the class colors, purple, white and yellow. Refreshments were served at a long table, which was decorated with streamers in the class colors. Yellow candles were used on the table. The fololwing were present: Mr. and Mrs. Rudolph Ehrich, Mrs. William Tumblin, Misses Dessie and Verley Schwartz, Ruth Pfous, Gertrude Reuss, Ruth Miller, Lena Roth, Clara Bock, Huldah Kamphausen and Eva Adams, George Kucklick, Wilbur Hahn, George Sharon, Herman Kratz and Fred Roth.

Surprise Party.

The friends and neighbors planned and carried out a pleasant surprise on Mr. and Mrs. Charles Hooker, of Coshocton Route 7, Wednesday evening at their home. In the form of a miscellaneous shower, they received many beautiful presents including silver, china, linin and aluminum. A delicious repast was served to the following: Mr. and Mrs. James Clark, Mr. and Mrs. Harvey Neldon, Mr. and Mrs. Waldo Neldon, Mr. and Mrs. John Kimberley, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Haines, Mr. and Mrs. Forrest Speaks, Mrs. Joseph Neldon, Mr. and Mrs. I. N. Rutledge, Misses Gladys Haines, Othelia Neldon, and Miss Hulda Hooker, of Coshocton, Messrs. Owing to the bad weather several couldn't be present.

Women In The News

LOS ANGELES, CALIF.—Because the position of Mayor of the city, to which she has been elected, seemed too high and lordly to her, Mrs. Ellen F. Aldrich refused to be mayor of Sawtelle, Calif. She balked at the eleventh hour, as the oath was about to be taken. She declared she wanted to mingle with the people, and the mayoralty would make this impossible. Mrs. Aldrich formerly lived in Dayton, O.

GODFREY, ILL.—Miss Elizabeth Waller of Henderson, Ky., has the honor of being the first woman in America to lay a cornerstone for an education institution. She is president of the senior class at Monticello Seminary. In the presence of the students and some 200 alumni, she laid the cornerstone of the new academic and administration building recently. Monticello Seminary is the oldest institution for the education of women in the middle west, and the second oldest in the country.

Berlin Scouts Peace Report

BERLIN.—Tho there is unquestionably a strong undercurrent of peace talk in Berlin, officials resent the intimation carried in a recent Washington dispatch that Chancellor Von Bethmann-Hollweg has asked Ambassador Gerard to cancel his vacation plans in order to transmit peace offers from Germany.

There is a general feeling among Germans that the war ought to end by autumn.

Prepare To Bury Their Living Son

COLUMBUS, MAY 4.—While his parents at Galion made burial arrangements and were mourning their son, Reuben Huffman, eighteen, as dead, young Huffman, at St. Anthony's hospital here, is alive today and unaware of the preparations for his own funeral.

A mixup in the institution's card index caused Huffman to be mistaken for a patient who died.

To Re-Decorate German Church

The official board of the German Evangelical church held a business meeting Thursday evening at seven o'clock, at the parsonage. Regular business of the organization was disposed of, and plans were discussed for the re-decorating of the interior of the church. The Ladies' Aid society has charge of the work, and the contract will be let in a few days.

Odd Fellows In Charge Of Rites

Funeral services for C. K. Watson, who died Wednesday evening at his home on South Eighth street, will be held Sunday afternoon at 1:30 o'clock at the M. P. church with Rev. Williams in charge. The Uniform Rank of the I. O. O. F., of which Mr. Watson was a member for many years, will have charge of the burial services at South Lawn where interment will be made.

For the Bird Cage.

Attractive are new brackets of enameled iron which may be attached to the wall, near a window, to support the hanging bird cage. Some of these brackets are enameled bright yellow and a gay little yellow bird, supposedly a canary, perches on the end of the bracket arm. Bright blue brackets are provided with blue-birds, red enameled brackets with gay red-breasted robins.

Italy and the Italians.

The Italians, especially of the South, are not as tall as the other Europeans. The Italians are not related, racially, to the Hebrews, but belong to the same breed as the French, Russians, English and other Aryan peoples. So far as we know, the people of Campania are not different, in origin, from the other Italians.

Misses Beulah and Fern Darnes, of South Seventh street, spent Thursday in Baltic.

Attorney F. E. Pomerene spent Thursday in Columbus on legal business.

Lester Tarman will return to Alliance this morning after spending a week with his mother, Mrs. Laura Pryor, of Fifteenth street.

HOW TO BE SLIM.

If you are too fat and want to reduce your weight 15 to 20 pounds, don't starve and weaken your system, or think you must always be laughed at on account of your fat, but go to Page & Lorenz or any good druggist, and get a box of Oil of Korein capsules, take one after each meal and one before retiring at night.

Weigh yourself once a week and note what a pleasant and reliable method this is for removing superfluous fat from any part of the body.

It costs little, is absolutely harmless and a week's trial should convince anyone that it is unnecessary to be burdened with even a single pound of unsightly fat.

HUSBAND OBJECTS TO OPERATION

Wife Cured by Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound

Des Moines, Iowa.—"Four years ago I was very sick and my life was nearly spent. The doctors stated that I would never get well without an operation and that without it I would not live one year. My husband objected to any operation and got me some of Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound. I took it and commenced to get better and am now well, am stout and able to do my own housework. I can recommend the Vegetable Compound to any woman who is sick and run down as a wonderful strength and health restorer. My husband says I would have been in my grave ere this if it had not been for your Vegetable Compound."—Mrs. BLANCHE JEFFERSON, 703 Lyon St., Des Moines, Iowa.

Before submitting to a surgical operation it is wise to try to build up the female system and cure its derangements with Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound; it has saved many women from surgical operations.

How Does $10 Look to You?

It matters not, whether it looks "big" or "little," $10 is certainly worth saving, and that's exactly what every suit purchaser will have a chance to do at this store Saturday, May 6th, when $10 Will be Refunded to the First Suit Purchaser and to Every Tenth Suit Purchaser Thereafter up to Closing Time, 9p.m.

The plan in detail is as follows: Starting at 9 o'clock Saturday morning and continuing until closing time, which is 9 o'clock Saturday night, we will refund $10.00 to the FIRST Suit purchaser and to every TENTH purchaser thereafter. And in order that all may have an equal chance, the records of this REFUND SALE will be kept secret until Monday, May 8th when the lucky purchasers will be notified to come and get their $10 refund. Further precaution against any unfairness will be taken by stamping the hour of each purchase on the slips and refunds will be made in rotation, accordingly.

This $10 Refund Applies to All Suits

regardless of kind or price, so if you are lucky enough to buy the first suit or the tenth, twentieth, thirtieth or fortieth suit thereafter, $10 will be refunded to you on Monday, May 8th. The prices range from $12.50 up to $35, so with the refund, these suits might be bought for $2.50 to $25.00. It's certainly worth a chance, at least and as you have nothing to lose and possibly $10 to gain, no one planning to buy a Spring Suit should hesitate to do so HERE Saturday. A good scheme would be to form a buying club of 10 women including yourself and if agreeable to all the $10 refund could be equally divided, each one saving $1.00 thereby. Remember please, that this applies only to suits purchased Saturday and also that all sales must be for cash and strictly bonafide. No returns or exchanges permitted!

COSHOCTON MORNING TRIBUNE
An Independent Daily Newspaper

Entered as second class mail matter at the postoffice at Coshocton, O., under the Act of March 3, 1879.

Published every morning except Monday by THE TRIBUNE COMPANY, 115 North Sixth Street, Coshocton, Ohio.

Resolutions and obituaries are charged for at the rate of 25 cents an inch; cards of thanks at 5 cents a line.

The Tribune is served by The American Press Association, The United Press and The International Syndicate.

"WHAT'S THE USE?"

The high priests and prophets of War are at last beginning to realize that they have over-played their hands. They have borne down so steadily for five or six months on the loud pedal that the nation is tiring of their din and clatter.

When these priests and prophets were causing their congressional mouthpieces to re-echo their cry that our forts are rotten; that our battleships are decrepit; that our submarines won't run; and that our army is hopeless, they simply caused practical-minded citizens to ask: "WHAT'S THE USE?"

If this is all we have for the billions we have spent the past fifteen years, why spend more? If our aeroplanes won't fly, if our guns won't shoot—and we have on the authority of the War Lords themselves that they won't—plain, common, every-day citizens wonder what is to be gained by taxing themselves for further stupendous and worthless expenditures.

And our people have been doing some more reflecting along the same line. If European militarism hasn't prevented war, what right have we to believe American militarism will do better? Peaceful, industrial America has had no part in the war. Europe, whosé policy has been to preserve peace by preparing for war, beholds the very pillars of her civilization torn down in a war which the German crown prince himself declares is "inexcusable."

Pacifism has saved America from war—save those of our own making. European preparation for war has resulted as it always has AND ALWAYS MUST—in war! So, the jingoes and armament makers have not had the success they expected. Sober America has listened to both sides and, we believe, still inclines to its traditional policy of preserving peace by remaining peaceful.

PRESIDENTIAL POINTERS

At the eighth Presidential election, 1816, nineteen states took part with a total electoral vote of 217. There were only two candidates—James Monroe, Republican, and Rufus King, Federalist. Daniel D. Tompkins ran for Vice President with Monroe while there were several candidates for Vice President on the King ticket. Monroe and Tompkins received 183 votes against 34 for King and a scattering among the Vice Presidential candidates.

NOTABLE BIRTHDAYS TODAY
May 5.

Eugene, former Empress of France, one of the most romantic personages now living, is observing her 90th birth day in her palace at Chislehurst, England. She is assured of four years more of life, she says, for mystic prophecies and combinations of figures give her a span of 94 years. She believes that the present European war will revenge her for the ruin of her affairs inflicted by the Prussians in 1870. Eugene was born in Granada, Spain, on May 5, 1826. Her great-grandmother was a lowly Spanish girl, with nothing but her beauty. A French wine merchant of Malaga married her. They had two daughters, one of whom married an American named Kirkpatrick. This American Consul was the grandfather of Eugene. With her mother, Eugene journeyed to Paris. There she met the Prince-President, Napoleon III, and after a romantic courtship they were married in 1853. The beauty of Empress Eugene, her charm and elegance, contributed to the popularity of the regime, and when the downfall came in 1870, she was one of the most courageous. When Napoleon was taken prisoner at Sedan, she obtained his release and fled with him and their son to England. Her son was killed in the British army, in 1879, and thus perished her hopes of regaining the French throne in his behalf. Eugene has turned over her palace as a war hospital, and she takes an active interest in the care of the wounded soldiers.

Tooth Loose? Watch out for Pyorrhea!

See your dentist twice yearly. Use Senreco twice daily.

When you find a tooth that gives back and forth, even just a little, see your dentist at once.

He will find conditions which you might overlook. He will find a gum recession, even though slight, where the gums have pulled away from the teeth. And he will tell you that you have the dread disease pyorrhea.

From pyorrhea come by far the greater part of all tooth troubles. Unless treated and checked, it will result not only in the shrinking and malformation of your gums and of the bony structure into which your teeth are set, but in the loss of the teeth themselves.

A specific for pyorrhea has been discovered recently by dental science, and is now offered for daily treatment in Senreco Tooth Paste. Senreco combats the germ of the disease. Its regular use insures your teeth against the attack or further progress of pyorrhea.

But Senreco does more. It cleanses the teeth delightfully. It gives them a whiteness distinctive of Senreco alone. Its flavor is entirely pleasing, and it leaves in the mouth a wonderful sense of coolness and wholesomeness.

Start the Senreco treatment before pyorrhea grips you for good. Details in folder with every tube. A two-ounce tube for 25c is sufficient for 6 weeks' daily treatment. Get Senreco of your druggist today; or send 4c in stamps or coin for sample tube and folder. Address The Sentanel Remedies Company 501 Union Central Building, Cincinnati, Ohio.

WATCH SORE THROATS

because swollen glands or inflamed membranes often affect other tissues and lung trouble easily follows.

As Nature's corrector of throat troubles the pure cod liver oil in Scott's Emulsion is speedily converted into germ-resisting tissue; its tested glycerine is curative and healing, while this wholesome emulsion relieves the trouble and upbuilds the forces to resist tubercular germs and avert the weakening influence which usually follows.

If any member of your family has a tender throat, get a bottle of Scott's Emulsion to-day. Physicians prescribe it to avert throat troubles, overcome bronchial disorders and strengthen the lungs. No alcohol or harmful drugs. Always insist on Scott's.

"My Lady's Slipper" A Thrilling Romance

ANITA STEWART AND EARLE WILLIAMS CO-STARS IN NEW VITAGRAPH BLUE RIBBON FEATURE

Elaborate costumes and settings of unusual beauty are to be seen in the latest Vitagraph Blue Ribbon release, "My Lady's Slipper," in which Anita Stewart and Earle Williams portray the principal roles under the direction of Ralph Ince. It is the story of the Louis XVI. period and the Vitagraph Company went to considerable expense to create the atmosphere of those times. The costumes and characters are authentic of that period.

"My Lady's Slipper" was written by Cyrus Townsend Brady and is one of the most interesting of the many successful novels from his pen. The Vitagraph Company has spared no expense in making it a veritable screen masterpiece and supporting Miss Stewart and Mr. Williams in the cast are such well-known players as Joseph Kilgour, Harry Northrup, William Shea, Julia Swayne Gordon, George O'Donnell, George Stevens and others.

The scenes of "My Lady's Slipper" are laid in and near Paris during the time of Marie Antoinette. The story tells of Francis Burnham, an American naval officer who escapes from a British convict ship to make his way to Paris to see Benjamin Franklin, the United States minister. While walking outside of the city's limits he rescues a beautiful girl from highwaymen, and falls in love with her. Playing cards at a gambling resort, Burnham becomes indebted to the Marquis de Tremingnon, who covets the Countess de Villars, and forces the American to steal from her boudoir some article of wearing apparel. Burnham discovers that the countess is the beautiful girl he rescued from the highwayman and altho he takes her slipper he refuses to give it up to the marquis. Burnham denounces the marquis and is thrown into prison. Word is carried to the countess of his plight and thru her influence Burnham is released and the marquis humiliated. Later the American and the countess are happily married.

"My Lady's Slipper" is the first costume play in which Anita Stewart has ever appeared. Both she and Mr. Williams wear their silks, satins and laces in graceful manner and their appearance in this production will further endear them to the motion picture public.
